BUDGET PASSES BUT PRINTING IS DEFERRED

After considerable discussion over the budget last night, with suggestions that it be raised or that it be lowered, Supervisor Logan moved that it pass first reading without order to print. The motion carried. The work paper will be held back from the printer owing to the fact that there may be a few changes made here and there in it before it is considered perfected.

When the question of expenses for the courts came up for discussion, considerable feeling against the court expenditures in the past developed through the fact that the juvenile of floor had gone ahead with the purchase of an automobile, against the advice of the board.

Logan suggested that as the automobile is used almost entirely for the industrial school work, it is rather an unkind cut to compel the city and county to pay for it.

Whether or not to vote a lump sum for the courts to carry them through an 18-month period came up for considerable careful thought, and Shingle expressed the feeling that if the whole amount were given to them at once it would soon be spent.

Attorney A. M. Cristy was asked to look into the law on the subject of appropriations to see whether or not it is a crime for the court to spend money beyond its appropriation.

Of the items inserted in the budget at the last minute was $7,000 a month for carrying out the work on the stretch of road between Kualoa point and the foot of the Pali, and $2,100 a month for the concrete retaining wall along the Pali road.

Logan moved a raise for the deputy clerk, and Arnold moved for a raise for the fire chief, but both withdrew their motions when it was decided not to have the budget printed yet.

LARSEN CLASHES WITH SHINGLE ON FAMOUS TRAILER

Showers and pinwheels of vocal fireworks enlivened routine business at the supervisors' session last night when Supervisor William Larsen and Supervisor Robert W. Shingle held a fiery debate on the subject of tractors, trailers and loads, in which more than a scope of left-handed compliments ricocheted in quick succession between them.

When Supervisor Shingle arose and asserted the trailer Larsen had built according to his own plans had pulled the tires off the Knox tractor, Larsen turned several shades redder than usual and let off a few 42-centimeter blasts in Shingle's direction.

"You have absolutely no experience in this line," roared Larsen.

"I may not have had as much experience," began Shingle.

"You bet you haven't," responded Larsen.

"But I do have common sense, at least," finished Shingle. He advocated that the supervisors purchase a $1250 Bulldog trailer for the tractor, and said the machine was not intended to be used without the trailer.

Should Have $12,000 Job.

"If you've had all this experience you ought to get a $12,000 job with a tractor building company," continued Shingle. "Instead of $50 a month as supervisor."

On suspension of the rules, the von Hamm-Young Company's representative, E. E. Dodge, explained the situation, and said he would recommend the city buying a trailer adapted to the tractor. Supervisor Daniel Logan intervened and said the board should be more economical until it is in a position to buy the equipment.

Supervisor Shingle then advocated that the supervisors take the money from the January road appropriation and use it to buy the tractor. A lengthy discussion of technical details then began between the two supervisors, ending up with Larsen saying that the agent's advice "was all bunk." This brought down on him a rebuke from Mayor Lane.

Supervisor Shingle's motion to buy the trailer failed to carry.

ESTATES ALONG STREET PLANNED MAY COOPERATE

"We have strong hopes of securing joint action by the property owners who would be affected by the opening of Bethel street so as to assure the improvement," said J. C. Cohen of the Consolidated Amusement Company today. "If Bethel street is opened we will gladly give the 15 feet it would take off of our property, and would then immediately proceed with the erection of a real theater for Honolulu, a structure costing anywhere from $75,000 to $100,000."

The Bishop estate is interesting in itself and there is hope that the Aldrich, Widemann and Robinson estates will also do so. Those four control the situation. With Bethel opened from Hotel to Pauahi, the entire district would be benefited and Honolulu would have a new building era.

The board last night adjourned at 11 o'clock to meet again tomorrow night at 7:30 o'clock.

COLLINS GIVES SUMMARY OF ALL DISTRICT WORK

City Engineer George Collins has sent to the board of supervisors a detailed report showing the cost of various improvement projects now under way and of districts about to be taken up for improvement.

Manoa, Lanihale and Beretania three districts which have passed hearing, represent a total estimated cost of $278,892. Of this amount Manoa represents $133,000, Lanihale $40,812, and Beretania, $24,080.

Five districts are now under way but have not passed public hearing and these represent a total estimated cost of $19,220. Kakaia avenue will cost $7,524, King Street extension, $24,000; Beretania between Alapai and Punahoa, $75,000; Hotel, $10,027, and Pauahi, $12,669.

Engineer Collins places rough estimates on two districts which have just started to amount to $12,500. These are Beachwalk, $7,040, and Punahoa, $10,000.

Districts to be improved, but upon which, as yet, no action has been taken, are as follows:

Smith street, Bishop street from Hotel to Allen; Sixth avenue, Kaimuki, and Ninth avenue, Kaimuki; Kapaehulu road; Iwilei district; King street between Rich and McCully streets.

Total estimates of districts under way, those just started, and those not yet heard in public, amount to $602,162.

MEMO'S OF MEETING OF CITY SUPERVISORS

A resolution to pay the bill of $32,500 for the three new Seagrave fire trucks passed first reading before the supervisors last night.

Should a fire engine be insured against fire? Logan brought up this question last night and had a committee appointed to answer it.

Elen Low, who was awarded $169.70 for damage to his automobile, wrote to the board informing them that he will not ask interest if the amount is paid at once.

Manager C. G. Ballentyne of the Rapid Transit Company wrote to the board notifying them that he did not believe double track will be laid on Beretania street within the next five years.

Engineer Collins recommended to the board that the Palolo valley bridge be accepted from the contractor, John Wilson. The supervisors voted last night to pay Wilson the remaining amount on his contract, $473.

Mayor Lane's reappointment of the members of the city civil service commission was confirmed last night by the board. The members of the commission are: Lorin Andrews, chairman, S. P. Correa, and Noa Aluli.

For maintenance and repairs until the end of the month the road committee was allowed last night $3600 to be expended as follows: Iwilei road, $400; Queen street, $400; Kamehameha IV road and Waialeale-uka, $400; Kuanawai lane, $200; Quarry waste on Beretania, $200; Palolo-uka, $200; Waialeale road, $100; River street over new bridge, $100; asphalt patching, $1200; emergency, $400.

"Before we take up the budget," said Larsen last night at the meeting, "I move we rescind all contemplated raises in salaries that have been suggested in caucus, and continue at the same rates for another six months." Shingle seconded on condition that Murray's salary is to be included in Larsen's suggestion. Mayor Lane declared the motion out of order.

"When can I talk on the salary of the consulting engineer, then?" asked Larsen after being declared out of order by the mayor.

For the next six months," Horner binned up, and the crowd laughed.
